2022 Media Talking Points: In 2021, the Redwood Empire Food Bank distributed over $59 million worth of healthy groceries to residents in Sonoma, Lake, Mendocino, Humboldt, and Del Norte counties, providing enough food for over 24 million meals.

The Redwood Empire Food Bank provides over 300 monthly food distributions through three hunger-relief initiatives:

- Every Child, Every Day: Four robust programs ensure a healthy start in life for our littlest neighbors in need, providing food to 54,126 at-risk children.
- Senior Security: Our Senior Basket program provides food monthly to 5,404 low-income seniors, giving them the nutritional stability and resources they need to lead healthy, independent lives.
- Neighborhood Hunger Network: We provide groceries to anyone in need through a variety of programs that improve the health and well-being of 79,203 individuals monthly in our community.

Why we're here is simple: people are hungry. We can help them. And we do. However, what we do—and how we do it—is surprisingly complicated.

We rely on the support of:

- 10,000 dedicated volunteers
- 82 passionate staff members
- 13,783 individual monetary donors
- 710 corporate, foundation, and organization donors
- 113 farms, food manufacturers, and suppliers
- 150 other hunger-relief partner organizations

What can you do to help the Redwood Empire Food Bank continue on its mission of ending hunger in our community?

- We are in dire need of food, funds, and volunteers. It's not one or the other — we need all of it. Every dollar, every minute, and every food donation makes a difference.
 - We need volunteers. Throughout the year, the Redwood Empire Food Bank relies on more than 10,000 volunteers—the equivalent of more than 45 full-time staff.
 - We are taking all necessary precautions and following CDC guidelines to ensure that staff, volunteers, food, and participants remain safe so our distributions can continue.

Updated: February, 2022

- We have turned the majority of our distribution sites into drive-thrus to accommodate safe social distancing practices. As a result, we are having volunteers distribute food boxes for participants to grab and go.
- We need food. Food donations help keep our warehouse shelves stocked with non-perishable staple groceries for distribution through Redwood Empire Food Bank programs and partner organizations.
 - Our most needed items include Canned Tuna, Canned Chicken, Peanut Butter, Rice, Pasta, Oats, Dry Beans, Low Sugar Cereal.
- We need money. When you donate to the Redwood Empire Food Bank, your money helps us purchase food, pay our staff, fuel our trucks and keep our lights on. Without money, we wouldn't be able to operate and distribute food to those in need. For every $1 received, we're able to provide $4 worth of healthy food.

About the Redwood Empire Food Bank

The Redwood Empire Food Bank is the largest hunger-relief organization serving Northern California. Since 1987, the Redwood Empire Food Bank has provided food and nourishment to those facing hunger—serving more than 100,000 children, families and seniors in Sonoma, Lake, Mendocino, Humboldt, and Del Norte Counties. With over 300 direct service distributions, and 150 partnerships with other hunger-relief organizations, all residents facing food insecurity have access to more than 450 weekly and monthly distribution sites across the five counties.
